~~August~~ (Aug. 1st)

Sat. 25: Sunday 26: Monday 27: Tuesday 28: Wed. 29: Thursday 30: Friday 31:

& good assemblage. Fair, at Chapel on the 26: On the 29, sent the canoe, to Ajonju & Yeña, to buy & get thatch and bamboo. Ajonju stayed so late that he did not get back, in time for prayer-meeting, & thus detained Mbora, who was with him, from being back in time for the meeting. I was annoyed at this; but more so, at Ajonju's clandestinely taking his palm-oil along with him, to , I object to his mixing his Bible-work, & his selling for gain. On Thursday, I spoke to him about it, & his acknowledgments were very satisfactory. Have had a head ache for three days.

stopped, just at noon, in a small [illegible], where we [illegible]. He brought word that he had passed the "Gambia" aground, at Belambila, - subsequently had passed a canoe containing M. Gacon, who was on his way to me, & who would await a canoe from me. I sent a good canoe & crew, at 1.30 P.M. And, to my surprise, they went so rapidly, & they returned, at 5. P.M., Sat. 8, with M. Gacon, who has come to repair the "Kelly Howard". He brought a small mail (no newspapers), - letters from Mrs. Pratt (8 & 9 May 5th June 20); Fox Hill, June 28; and July 11; Mrs. J. E. Robinson July 6. And from Mrs. Reading, a few lines from Mrs. Good. A very unsatisfactory letter from [illegible], gave me a sleepless night.

Singing duets & trios with M. Gacon. He played on his flute; but I cd. not play with him; for, he plays only by ear, not by the notes. On Monday the 10th, M. Gacon began to fashion timbers, from the [illegible] which I had prepared, for the "Kelly Howard". On the 11th, the anniversary of my anchoring at [illegible], 11th, 1861, began to draw some logs, for the slide, which I propose making, at the Coa-landing.

Sept. 12th	Wedy.	On the 12th, sent Mr. Annie K., nurse
" 13th	Thursday	with the crew, to visit her mother til
" 14th	Friday	to visit her. On til
" 15th	Satdy	Satdy, & the crew rtd.
" 16th	Sabbath	return with Coa-boo.
" 17th	Monday	Mr Coa delayed the crew,
" 18th	Tuesday	by his visit at Walker
" 19th	Wedy	M's, & the crew complained of him. On the 13th I had observed a bad effect, & objected to, any more, on the town visiting, when there was peculiar business connected with it, the real animus was that he did not like having to aid in the part. So, I told him that I wd not allow him to go at all. One of these days, the 14th (I think) in dragging logs for the slide, Mr Coa fell, was struck by the log, & so jarred that he had to be excused from work for 3 days.

On the 15th, sent to Yeña, for Mr Coa; the canoe returned early, bringing also nurse Annie K., whom Mrs Coa was very anxious to have come back.

Sabbath the 16th, was a pleasant day, except that I had a cold in the head & throat.

I think it was the 17th that Miss Bella had some friction with Jennie N., about Mary's clothes. On the 18th, Nilora came to apologize for his language of last week, & I allowed him to go with the canoe on the 19th. The duck of the 18th; 2 young men of Hall's, Thos. L. Beddoes & Richd Beaton, stopped, for the night, with their canoes & people, on their way to establish a factory at Assange. They brought a mail of newspapers, & letters from Mr. Reading of Aug. 27th; Mr Gord Sept. 18th; copies of Assembly Journal from Dr. Bourinot & of "The Week Supplement", from Dr. Bourinot.

On the 19th, the place very quiet, for a crew of 4 had gone with canoe, to [illegible], & another 4, with "Swan" to King Wm. Bacon, to visit Assange Post.

The 3 logs of the slide were all dragged, & the cross-pieces all were [illegible] spiked on. And the "self-Dumping" repairs are (supposed) finished, & it is receiving its second coat of [illegible].

Sept. 20th, Thursday } In the evening of the 20th,
" 21st, Friday } the "Akile" passed up, stopping at their factory here, for the night:- On the 21st, letters, & sent them by the "Akile", wh. returned, from up river, at noon:- Have been building scaffolding, the last week, for repairing the roof of this house,- sent the workmen up on the roof, in the afternoon of 21, & finished it.

Sent to ~~Apia~~ Vaitele factory, for goods: also, to get a little water-cress, for propagation at Talaguga:- No strangers present on Sabbath:- On the 24th, finishing the repairs & painting of the "Nelly-Howard", wh. Mr. Deacon has given a new life to,- as it now looks very little:- Tore down the boat-shed, built temporarily a year ago near the chapel, & roofed, with its ~~compass~~ for cook's house, the bath-house, in the garden:- Finished the job there the 26th. Getting ready for the journey to

[On journey]

(Sept. 1888) (6)

Kângwé :- On the 26th, loaded up & started, at 8.30 A.M., with 20 souls, all told in the "Nelly Howard", closely crowded with luggage.

In 2 hours, stopped for dinner, at Jane Hj Crothai's trading-house, at Njoma, where she & her child Little Iga were to stay till we returned from Kângwe ; had just before stopped at Njéjá's, to enquire about my Bamboo thatch, to have it ready on my return :- Stopped a few minutes, at Njambé's at Bitâgâ Lagoon, & found no Thatch-thatch ready ; & he offered many a little Monkey :- On to the Bakuna village, a very large one :- Njâgu & Mama : a woman gave Mary sugar-cane another (pregnant) woman wanted to gaze on Mary, - to see her child might be like her : On to Akuri's village :- On to village of Aza & Njéjá :- crowded to Akuri's town, a very rude people, whom I had to rebuke, in order to get room to stretch in, & chair to sit on :- Had headache, & slept very little - at night.

On the 27th, early, on, to Belambila, got Avogado pears :- On, to arrive at Inhambane, Mr. Whitaker's at Erland Factory, Boat. The river was shallow, & I gave up the attempt. (Had eaten dinner in the forest.) Passed the "Gambia", opposite Leland Factory:- The river had risen distinctly, & the boat touched ground very little:- At Kângwe, by 4. P. M.- Met by (Mrs Carmichael, teacher) Bertie Lord glad to meet Mary. (Mrs Savage, teacher) I had such sleepy eyes, & I went to bed early at night. On Friday 28th, rested at Kângwe, with a headache, wh. passed off, at noon, in a walk to the Hill, to see Mr. Lord's new house on the hill-top. Preached in the afternoon. Sat up late at night, talking on native-marriage questions with Mr. Lord.

Saturday, Sept 29th. Went to the Trading-Houses of Wörmann, & Hatton & Cotton:- Got a bill of goods, at each place:- Came back late to Kângwe:- Played with Mary, from meeting. She had run against a chair on the porch, & cut her lip: she cried heavily to sleep, on my lap:- After meeting was over, paid our people their months' wages; & Aggie & Nanie (Assistant nurses) their years due:- Mary not well at night

[Kângwe] (Sept. 1888) (5

Sabbath. Sept. 30. Preached, in the morning, but left church immediately, & did not stay to the Table, but went to call Sister Bella, & I stayed with Mary all the rest of the day, in the house. Was amazed to hear that the Ch. Session had admitted Mañandi.

Monday Oct. 1st } On Monday Mary was better, Tuesday " 2d } but still weak:- I went to Wed.y " 3d } Holt's factory, at Sinanga, to see about buying their dead trading-house up river, for Agonjo's proposed Scripture-reading work:- In the afternoon, went to the Hill, to see the new house of Mr. Good with Mary, Sister Bella, & Mrs Good:- Got a young bread-fruit tree, to transplant to Talagunga. On the 2d, I had a bad headache, & cd do nothing all day. Mary was well again, except a cold in the head & cough:- A note came from Mr. Lutz delaying the starting of the "Adèle" up river, till Thursday morning. To day 3d:- Mary [illegible] & playing, except [illegible] a red, [illegible] eruption, wh. I supposed was the outcome of [illegible]

[Kângwe] (Oct. 1888 (9) [Journey]

Thursday ... } On the afternoon of Wed.y, Friday " 5th } had [illegible] the largest [illegible] of our luggage, & sent it, in boat with Mr. Good, around to (Mr. Leitz,) in advance of the journey of 5th Thursday :- Oct. 4th Did not go to bed, on the night of Wed.y, but dozed off & on, till 3.30 A. M. the 4th: wakened the crew:
sent down the luggage at 4. A. M.: Mrs. [illegible] & [illegible] ; wakened & dressed Mary,
& was off from the landing, at 5. A. M.

Azziza & her newly-married husband,
Ogandaga, & a new workman, Avokunda, with Ngwandiinya as passenger, made 8 paddles, Reached Wâenamé, at exactly 6. A. M.: & 20 minutes later, the "Athile" started with us, & the boat in tow. In passing Wolli factory, Carruthers sent off a letter, giving the desired factory-home, wh. I had asked to buy. Slow progress, with the roof-boat loaded with [illegible].
Did not get aground, but last time in torturous channels. At first, did not expect to reach Talagunga this day, & afterwards receded in [illegible], to Ngoma;

[Journey] (Oct. 1888) (10)

Reached Iguidata, & finally only by running after dark, reached Aza'i village, where [illegible] to —. When we left Kângwe, in the morning, [illegible] well, & on the steamer, ate well, & slept on rugs on the deck, a long while in the a.m. When she woke, she vomited, & was purged of a chyme- & mucous liquid. Was startled at the sudden change:- This [illegible] due to a recession of Tuesday's emotion: & at the time, thought [illegible] a banana & asparagus had disagreed with her. All went ashore: had meeting with the people: told them the [illegible] & that I wd. send a teacher to them: A miserable night with Mary, who plead for water to drink, & I wd. give her but my little: very painful to resist her pleadings. On Friday a.m., by S. S. N., & off on the "Akele", & C. [illegible] Mary's nausea diminishing, but [illegible] — Evd. Gave her, little sips of limeade,- little sips of water,- some [illegible] of nitre, & rice-water. Anxious for steamer to get on. Angwè had come [illegible] down during the night. Passed

[Journey] (Oct. 5) (11) [Talaguga]

Akuri's village early,- he was not in sight or waiting for us. Report had two villages were in ambush, for my boat, in revenge for the death of 3 of their people, drowned in Kenaouli pennice :- stopped at Ajaju's town for him & Imane :- stopped at Kare-kolo, for wood :- stopped at Ajonne, for nurse Jane N. & Iga :- many distressed [illegible], wh. I feared to give, till we reach Talaguga. Jane N's [illegible] aroused her. Visit, [illegible] by 3.15, P.M., the second immediately: A hot bath benefited her, & she slept tolerably [illegible], I sat up late, making up prescriptions, from "Condie on Children's Diseases."

Saturday Oct 6th. Many rose with energy, but some felt [illegible]; but, somewhat better in all respects. Last canoe & crew, to Ajonne, for boards: Others, at the completing of the house for Azija: A quiet day. Putting away the luggage & goods by the journey: Rapantyambi's wife came, visit in [illegible] for medicine: The "Akiki" passed down, but I had no [illegible] Many Kambona loss, & she willing to ride slowly in the carriage, in my room & the wind.

Sabbath Oct. 7th } There was a large audience,
Monday " 8th } in the Chapel, in Talaguga.
Tuesday " 9th } Jane H. & Rita Bella stayed all day with Mary, who was in frequent dozing; wd. eat nothing; & her fecal passages [illegible]; & for this, though very much inspired in Tibian color, & the Colonel, Spencer, doctor of Med & hypnotism (see page 216 of Condit) given every three hours. For food, there was rice-water, [illegible] (in her cough medicine). Her cough was [illegible] but frequent. In the evening [illegible] Bella was so unjust to me & Jane H., that I cd. not tranquilize my mind, in evening Chapel; & having begun the Lord's Supper for Mrs to conclude, & [illegible] to take charge of Mary myself; [illegible] vexed & left me & Jane H., & we did not see her again the night. Had a long talk, till long after midnight, with Jane.

On Monday 8th. There was a heavy rain last night. The Rainy season had begun with thunder & lightning on Friday night. Jan were here, staying on his journey, over night: Mary better, but still with no appetite:- ~~Dear~~ Stayed with Mary most of the day: gave her some quinine, in the evening, it ~~vomitated~~, but she bravely swallowed it down, again & kept it all:- On ~~Thurs~~ Tuesday 7th, put up the "Kelly Howard":- Mary rose in the morning suddenly better,- Talking & trying to play; & this energy she kept up all day. Had a very serious talk with Jane H. in the evening.

Wed^y Oct. 10th Sent the canoe & crew, to Yeña, for Bamboo:- Jane H. was dis- ~~pointed~~ something, but, was relieved, by a long ~~con~~ talk with me. Yesterday the "Clio" ~~came~~ up again. At night the "Akele" passed up. Rain now ~~c~~

[Talaguga] (Oct. 1888) (14)

Saturday, rest the rest, to Jeña, for lambs & onions:- On Sabbath, [illegible], but there was a good audience :- The French govt native agent, Ongây, at meeting, with his little sister, [illegible] is Jane His cousin, who remained the rest [illegible].

Monday Oct 15th Angbe's relatives came yesterday, to visit him at noon. [illegible] 5. P. M., Jenie Azjeja came, to beg for a canoe, to complete a journey with sick woman of his company. To-day, reluctantly loaned him a canoe, taking his gun & fetish as hostages: Ongây came, on his way back to Asange, & got of me flower seeds, [illegible] young trees. He told me of his rescuing a Faŋ, in the near Bindubi village, who was to be sold as meat to the Faŋ near me, [illegible] because of his persistent policy [illegible] of women:- Felt feverish, in the afternoon & evening: to bed early.

Tuesday Oct. 16th. Slept [illegible] last night. Azjeja's house is [illegible]ed, & I set the young men at various works, & did [illegible]

a little carpenter work, at the Prayer-House. The "Dualla" passed up to day: so day, for the first time, complaint was made to me, against many, that she had "tâwâ-d" (insulted) any one. The complainant was little Volgâ, - the other children were indignant at him, for complaining against a little child: she meant no evil.

Journey with Agonjo to the Imâgenêmê Fair.

Wednesday Oct. 17th } By S. S. W. 1/2 hr. to Q. 1/4
Thursday " 18th } 17th, in a canoe, promised by Ongâz, had not come.
Friday " 19th }

Oct 20th 2 p.m. ... with Abunta & 3 others in one, & Agonjo with 4 others in the other. Started, at 9.30 A.M. The "Akêle" passed ... just before. I was ready, having sat up, to read the mail, which came on afternoon of 18th, with 9 Boxes of tools, & 5 other Boxes: a very unsatisfactory consignment, because there was no waybill, & I could not verify the tools. ... day: head was landed from the "Kite", as it passed down, having been forgotten on Tuesday:-

Stopped at Yena, to inquire about the bamboo & ompavo still due me. Mwakijumi, the head-man, is away, in a war with some tribe Bakele:- Ati at Yena:- On to Bitiji, to arrange about the ompavo which Njumbo had made for me. Heard of the death of his little daughter:- On, just past Ngilala, to Njaju's town: walked through the village: 2 new guns were engaged to come & work. Visited compound with Mbumba & his cause, who were also late Angazi to his village, held meeting, & join us next morning. Stopped at Atieni's: he lives about in a French-village. On to Ngonjo's morning: the stolen dog returned! Calculations of building material needed for Mpanis: Evening meeting: I was sleepy; & Ngonjo held me with after I went to bed. I heard the interested enquiries of some men talking with him: Could not sleep, for remembrance of Mwanja picture cries for water, 2 weeks ago, on the very spot. On the 18th we left Kyanga back Fish given after prayers, [illegible]. Met the "Dacalla" coming down. At Njägu's village, was joined by a number of the 2 lads came with 2 others, young men. - On to Akoga, where I got for making a fire a fire-brand, as I had no matches.

Ate in the forest about noon.
On to Bilägä, at 2.30. P.M. Began to count out for carriers, for a number to take to Jalaga, 300 for one canoe to take, to an adjacent Gorce man, to keep for me, till I was ready to take it to Agonjo's house. - Semine talk with Njambi, about his dinking &c.
Placed the 300 at the Gorce's. - Njambi gave me a monkey, for dinner.
On, to Njimu, & Klayedt at Jamie's brothers, Antyuse. Slept in his mouth, kept room & his dead wife. Left St Paul de Loanda, wh.
I had bought from Njambi. Did not sleep well, - was thinking of many things.

On the 19th

were cool, took no tea, & started at once after prayer. The men were vexed that I rain the best saddle to the other carry & then pulled but slowly, for an hour & then got over their spite. Crossed Abamba, & passed him at Panjala. I pulled a saddle, for 1/4 of a mile. Oared rapidly, & came at Talagunga, by 10.30 A.M. Men in ecstacies at our coming. Rejoicing over Njaundis return. Mpanie was welcome. Spent afternoon in opening the boxes & tools, &c had come last Sunday. Men in good health. The Gone witch at Pitagai told me a large fleet was coming, for which I am to send him powder & paintaine.

Saturday Oct. 20: Put up, into their houses the two canoes & yesterday's journey:- The big canoe & the Governor's which Ongâja had promised to have ready for me by 8. A.M. of Wednesday, did not come till noon of Thursday, after I was gone, & was not brought here till left at Mpagasi, accross the river. The canoe was brought here, by the Fair man, to whom it had been sent from Leone: & I immediately sent it to Asaga, & Auba & crew: 4, & a small canoe with 2 ch. thereto belonging: Jane H. fixed a strong band, with ch. to tie the anchor to the little chain I had provided: I Repairing the Mkâni-house roof:- Marking out the fences & the track ch. came last Tuesday.

Saturday. Oct. 21st. Filfal weather to day: misty, showery, light- lift during night, & dark clouds, but no rain: some of the Chiefs & Church brought wood for one of Unpaga's wives, had been (as) on a fruit journey, & eaten by Fair excitement among our people. After dinner, showed Jane H. my photos of mine & Miss Nassau's relations. It was deep, in Sabbath, from having had up late reading again the mail that came last Tuesday:- Besides the local letters, were, July 14: from Clarke: Pender Cowie: Mr Cadzow: & Sons

F. M. S., July 17th; Jean Goreman, July 17th; Jean Son Will, Aug 1st; Jean Miss Todd Aug. 6th; Dr Goreman, Aug 6th; Jane Goreman Aug. 17th.

Monday Oct. 22d. The "Jacques Louis" went down river: from Utenda, Ut. little "Inanga". About 1.30 P.M. the "Adele" passed up, x, about 4.30, the "Gambia". A letter from Mr. Gord, x several little things, vaseline x Velvet brush x a folding chair. I bought a quantity of cajuma flour, this morning. Agonjo preparing to leave, to go his wife, x be ready for the Bible-reading work. Mutoma also going away, tomorrow, on a visit down river. Have written letters to-day, but am to send to which with the letter to Jean Goreman I desired to.

} Mr. T. S. M. P. " came down river, x Agonjo & Mutoma x Dika on her.

of course, the "Gambia" came down, and brought letters, papers, etc. from Honolulu, and I read & wrote, on Sunday & Monday, a long letter to Dear Governor, hoping the "Mariposa" would take it: but was disappointed to see (Tuesday) that it has not come yet: (On Tuesday) about 5 P.M. the Chief man, with whom I left my canoe at Talaga, came here, for some medicine, & told me something about difficulty & his employer with the Govt., & charges of theft ordinates to different places. But I did not understand it. He was charged to bear me here. Last night when I heard it, about who was to be in charge of my canoe. On Monday, sent the authorities down, as it, to inquire about the canoe; & returned with satisfactory reply.

The Stone almost covered with the rising river: On Thursday, were disappointed all day: almost all the natives were out excavating in search of (Manuhuli, Ai-Kinda, & Talaguga. Am disappointed also in Jane. H. I seem not to understand her.

Thurs. it was Sat. the "Jane Annie" came up river; On Sabbath the "Thetis" passed up. Mail was not mail all day. On Monday, the "Thetis" came down; anchored, & left us, bringing ashore 2 big Cases, Cloth, & 1 missing Case of Tools, & 1000 dried fish, & the mail. It had not brought the foreign letters from Tulagi. On the arrival of the boxes of cloth, & arranged them in the store room: The "Evino" passed up:- Mahgun & Bigwan (Nguna traders) came for medicine; the former for a felon on his finger, & the latter with a toothache:- On the 30th leaving Tanna'i at 7 a.m. & Jane Ann ran up stairs, went in the "Swan" with her & Mga, to have her tooth extracted by Bigâŋ, at Strange Island. Tide out, along, & the behaved nicely. Was 3 hours & 1/4 on the way; a strong & saith, at Strange; the three factories very busy buying ivory & nuts, from the "crews" The Gunboat came just arrived from the interior. Mr

Mc Vaggart (in h.: Thomas; place) came in & settled, & the last article for, while I was absent in Carruthers' store. A pleasant ride down river with Dan, & 1.30 P.M. the "Pirie" passed out at 5.15 P.M.

a letter to Mr. Good by him, & sent, with it, a letter for Dan Charles & a tumbrige for Mr Swan.
Chan, also 10. d. ai., & laid down, sick with Fever. Jane M. was very attentive, in attending to my wants.
The difficulties between her & Miss Rella increasing. Could not attend to evening prayers, at night.
On the 6th, was no worse, but attended to morning prayers; Pat, while Mrs Kâme' worked at the cupboard, which was having built in my room. The medicine of last night operated well;
& I felt well, but weak.

In the p.m. sent the canoe, & Juana, to assist in Abele man[whom] had hurted, to have his [illegible] read, for me
, in case to Agonigo's house, next week.
Sent back, to Atyibino, the 2 extra cutlasses he had sent, over price of the paper I had sent him on Sat. previous.

On Thursday, Monkami again at work: I had sent him to his house, on afternoon of 7th, for dinner.
Finished the cupboard, & finished painting it: & finished a small set of shelves, & a little table, for Jessie's room up stairs: After Bella, was sick for 2 days. Rivers rose near the path in front of the house. The "Sambia" went up river yesterday: & in coming down to day, it stopped, to give me 2 bags ~~[illegible]~~ salt, from Mr. Mc Taggart, at Asange. Also, the mulatto, Sidney,
, sent to get a charcoal-iron, for
Mrs. Jones at Atyibino.

Friday Nov. 9th } On the 9th, all 3 occupants
Sat'y " 10th } of the Skáui house absent, by victims or dismissal to their home:- Arorkunda, was detected in smoking at his work:- All at work, in afternoon. Very warm. The little "Inenga" passed up, on the 10th:- The water has gone down a foot, in the night: Sent thanks to Apoli, for the "Gambia's" 2 Bags of salt:- The cupboard in our room completed, & in use: also the little cupboard upstairs in Jane M's room.

Sabbath Nov. 11th

Wed'y " 14th
Thursday " 15th
Friday " 16th

On the 12th, preparing 2 canoes & their crews, for the journey, to get Mr. & Mrs. P.'s furniture & Reading home in order. Waited until the "Skile", which had passed up on Saturday, did not go down again; perhaps she had something for me. She came down, about 9. A. M. & nothing for me. Started with the 2 crews: forgot my little clock: turned back, to get it, just after starting. Stopped at Walker's, to inquire the Greek man there, about the thatch left in his care at Bitäjä. Turned back again at the thought of sending back to Sitka, at the house, an extra one of my crew, as she was left with a weak crew; but changed my mind, & turned down again. Stopped to get provisions, in the p.m. At Yena, & took 50 of the Kaniku were there no there. Sent Abouska & his crew across river, to Antuwats, to go, & he so [illegible] left there.

As we passed Bitägä, heard Tjägaus father was dead. Near Nguilatta, changed crews, because my Tsimpsean feared the Bemijigë; & stopped to arrange with his Tsimpsean friends, for Agonio to get his pay there.

At Nagenen, by 5. P.M. Felt very lonely & sad at night, in the memory of that dreadful night there with Mary's diarrhea, 2 months ago. Before daylight of the 13th started Abouska & his Kaniku crew back to Bitägä, to get the thatch left there. Allowed Nguwetl to cross the river, to his town. (Had left the other 4 Tsimpsean off near Nguilatta, on Monday, for 2 days absence.) On the way down, on Monday, had heard that [Nâgenên] (1 Oct. 1888 (28)

had arrived, - but it was a mistake.
A very rainy day. Heard Agonjo was at Ntoni. Four steamers passed, - the "Basili", 2 gun boats, & the "Jean-Louis". Agonjo arrived, about 4. P. M.; & Abumba surprised me by his early arrival, at 5. P. M. Glad welcomes all around. All that day,
I had been busy with Mouhâmi, fastening in the door frames & doors of the house, repairing the broken bamboo. My knee.
On the 14th
sent Abumba & his crew, across river, to cut sticks, to lay on the roof. He returned at noon. Angwet had returned, early in the morning. Busy all day tying thatch around the sides of the house, & repairing [illegible]. Was very much annoyed at Agonjo's having, during crew of people with fish for sale to the Fân, & they were occupying the main house for their trade. By evening, the annoyance became so great that I ordered Agonjo forthwith, & ordered the fish company to leave the house. Went to bed very much depressed.
By 6.30. A.M. of the 15th started; left the canoe "Wichulla" with Agonjo, for his use, but went in it with him to Mvi

[Journey]

Jones', to get some [illegible] sent Abenda, with my canoe, to take on the 4 Fan near Nguileka (one, three, had left, but another came in his stead). (On Wed. 8. M., while at Ag[illegible] S. "Gambia" had passed up.)

Met again my canoe, with the united crews; said good bye to Agonjo, near Mr Jones', & sent again in my own canoe. Started again, about 8. 0, M.: the canoe, with 11 paddles, went very rapidly, I have never travelled so fast, before, by paddle or oar. At 12, noon, stopped to eat in the forest, beyond Nare-Volo Beach. At 4. P. M., passed Yeña. At 5. P. M. Pokonjonga, - met the 4 slaves of Mr Jones. At 6. P. M., passed the "Gambia", near Sierra Leone Sunset on the river: the crew paddling well in the moonlight. Reached Tallaenga at 7. P. M. Many Fanti welcome & joy.

A good audience, on Sabbath morning.
Sabbath evening, at 7, o'clk, the "Dundee" anchored near the house. A Mjingu man came ashore, to spend the night with Jane.
On Monday, I was up, at 3. A.M., waited to see our life on the "Dundee" went off, at 5. A.M., & brought ashore 4 Bags Rice, - 8 Boxes, 20 Bundles & a Bundle mail, Letters from Dr Goodman, & Fanny Goodman. Opened the boxes, & was rejoiced to find the long-expected Shoes for Mama, the underclothes, & the Wagon, & other playthings. Was not well, in the afternoon. Sister Bella sick, on Tuesday:- Natives people came, to see Mountains: and assistant cook Mjâgu went with them, to see some sick relatives:- Mjâgu & "Jaja's" mother were trespassing on my new clearing, and I drove them off; & in the afternoon, I cut a plantain, which I pound fine, & mold some as ptial :- Setting up the wire-fence along the river side - is now clearing.

On Wed.y, began to work at laying the boards on the unfinished part of the prayer-room. But my knee, (where I fell in the hole in Agonjie house last week) is now quite painful, & in afternoon, I poulticed it. The duck, had come off, on Saturday, with 6 little ones; one of them died on Sunday. Was not well on Wed.y night. Sister Bella also still sick.

Confined in the house on the 22d, poulticing the "Ituruga", on my knee, wh. was quite painful.

On Friday 23d, Sister Bella came, bringing 60 bunches of plantains, from Mrs. Lotz, on current acct. They were in an over-ripe condition, & many of them had to be thrown away.

On the 24th, Mbaka returned, bringing with him two young men, one of whom I took, but the other one (Ndâmbè) I accepted only for service with Agonjo. On Sabbath 25th, we began to have Service, on the front porch; but a storm came up, & we moved into the house, & held meeting there. Two Fan boys, Bakara & Biduti, came drenched with rain to church. But, in the afternoon, while sister Bella was holding Sab. Sch. in the afternoon, they broke into the Nkâmi house, & stole Mbalaie fish. During all the remainder of the week, I was confined almost to my chair. But I was more free from pain, after having my bowels opened on the 23d 24th Sat., had been a very restless afternoon & evening. On Sabbath I had a headache. On Thursday 29th, the swelling began to discharge. On Sat., Dec 1st, I sat in the store, & with the aid of Dick to hand things, & Jamie to measure off goods, I paid the month's wages. "Effie (Ovanga), Ongâŋ's wife, who is visiting at Râpântyambis, came to see us. On Jamie's machine, expecting to stay over Sabbath; but, in the evening, she changed her mind, & asked me to send her back to R[io].

On Sabbath Dec 2nd, I was much easier in my body, with good appetite, & free from pain, as long as I sat still. A class, Sister Bella conducted ~~Sab.~~ Sab. Sch., in the Chapel, in the afternoon. On Monday the 3rd, the "Gambia" came, bringing Mr Ina &c.

On the 10th, I resumed work, in the Prayer Room, sitting in a chair, & directing the work of putting up doors.

On the 11th, Sister Bella, with a crew of 7, went in her boat, to Itumeta to Agonjo, & take Ndoûmbé to him, also some building materials.

On the 12th Bilégâ & a young Galwa girl fled here, from Ntondo's village, in fear of a fight there, in wh. an Arabic man was killed, & 2 other wounded; this was before morning prayers; and, just after prayers, came 2 little boys also in fear. The 2 girls stayed all day & the next night. In the evening about 8. o'clk, the "Jean-Louis" passed, leaving off a small mail. It had no foreign letter for me. I think it was on the 13th that three young men who had gone up, the evening before, with a white man to Ararge, stopped on their way down, & gave me a letter purporting to be from Agonjo, telling of troubles the people of the village were making here. (It afterward proved to be a forgery*: but, it disconcerted me, even though, according to my habit, I did not fully believe the report, as it first came to me). On Friday 14th, about 11. A.M., Pinto returned! There had been no trouble at Agonjo. In the afternoon, came a canoe of Galwas, with plantains to sell. I bought 40.

My knee allows me to walk with pain.

* Agonjo was not at all disturbed.

Finished up on Friday all I had planned to do this week. On the 22, went to Asanga, & settled year's acct with Mr. Mooney. Rāpānlyāmā's theft with Mr. Mooney; & damaged letters of Mrbolu; Made a little table, for the Prayer-Room, after I returned from Asanga. Felt elated with the success of the week. On the 24, took acct. of stock in my store-room, with Mtumba & Mrbolu as aids. A heavy rain at night. On the 25, added up accts. On the 26, in afternoon, excursion to Mary Ozēgē, & allowed her to bathe, to her full delight in the river: had gathered my things for Kāngwe journey on Wed'y morning. (Journey) On Thursday noon, sailed down river. At Agonjo's, by 5. P.M. Unpleasant talk with the Fan. Lonely thoughts, on the way down river. On the 28th, off at 6. A.M. Dinner, in the forest, of mince pie, onion, & pine-apple. At Kāngwe, by 2. P.M. Mr. Gacon's room not quite ready for me. Mrs. Harding's surprise that I had not brought bride with me.

On the 29th, went to the factories, and settled my accts with Mrs Letz, & at 4 & 6.5. Mr Carruthers ill, at Mangi to Kangwe. In afternoon, "Hkile" came: Mr Carruthers to go Rain in heavy early in morning of the 30th; 4 & 6. & 9. a.m. "Hkile" came, & Mr. Carruthers was carried on board, in a cot: a bad night, as I feared he wd. not recover: Conducted the day's services, in Mr. Gordé absence (he went to take care of Mr. Carruthers).

Baptised 8 persons: Miss Harding's disorderly proceedings, after church, in distributing picture-cards in the building, & creating a noise round: On A.M. of 31st, settled with Agonjo, the accts wh. he had disputed on Sat'y: almost on the point of a break with him, about wages &c.; but he receded from his demand & I should provide lights: Boxing palm oil, & arranging food &c, for journey next day: In afternoon, went on the Hill, & saw Mrs. Gordé new house: and expected to go on to a Fan town, & see Mr Good: did not but head Man to man had been removed, to a more distant village; & did not go: Penjogo arrived, with a new man, & Linda, in a canoe of people with fish, who were going up river, to sell at the Fair.

Early on the 1st of January, my crew getting the 2 canoes ready: Mbala & Kandoga had arrived, during the night, with Mbala's wife Muanyeno: Started at 8. A. M., with 2 canoes & 11 people; & the fish canoe kept company with us: Ale, at the head of Nkângwe ("Walker's") island, opposite Nguenje mouth: Penjogo's (& Mbala's) canoe had fallen behind, & did not overtake us, to eat with us: Fine progress all afternoon:- Mbanu's people at "Pau-bout" village:- Stopped all the night, with all 3 canoes, at "Linga-linga" Traders', opposite head of Penjogo-Pit a (Goose island). Early on 2d, started all together: fine progress, Stopped, in the forest, at a Fish basket, about 11 A.M., for dinner, with all 3 canoes: Traders' canoe, in fear of Mbanu's reputation, joined my company, & passed the village under my protection: Stopped there, to get Njega & Ndzâ; they came willingly: Passed on rapidly, all afternoon, & a. 6. P.M. to for the night, at Kee-ivlo. Have had made to rapid a journey; a round 3 days' distance accomplished in 2.

Early on the 3d, started, & passed rapidly. Stopped, in front, beyond it some ri. P.M., to eat. Stayed there 2 hrs. Mabalé came out to us, only 1/4 hour before we left. Pushed on, with them, & going rapidly, reached Salaguga at 2.30 P.M. Welcomed by many friends &c.

Mabalé came on, & at 5.30 P.M. started to Kenjogo, about his load of dried fish for sale to Fan, or my friends.

On Fri. 4th, paid wages; and started the new people at their work; Felix and Isaac's men, to & from Bella Bella.

On Sat. 5th, Peni came & ate, to visit Isaac H., to swim, to bathe &c. Had had a serious talk with me, this afternoon; & he could not go to bed until he had had another talk with me, & would not delay the canoe, he did not go. Journey with Mr. Gore for Church Organization.

Off from Talaguga, by 6. A. M., with 8 crew, and Janie N., Iga, & Mary:- Inquired at Ajomu, for Ayitinlo; he was not there:- Passing Akoyo, a Fan hailed us, & held up to view a human arm, offering it for sale as "meat". He said they had just come from Abanga Creek, and had killed 2 people there:- Stopped at Ayinlota, to see Mrs Wheeler, Mr Jones's successor; but he was not there:- At Agonjo's, by 10.30. A. M. A Fan inquired for the Ake. Ate there, in the boat. Took Agonjo and the inquirer with me, making 10 paddles:- Stopped at Mbomi, to inquire for a Goree trader "James", who was living with 2 of Janie's cousins. That was not his place. Found his house at Samkita :- Janie went ashore to see them ; she was not well received by him. Her story of the playing ; in wh. her cousins allowed themselves to live :- To the "Falaba", wh. was discharging Government cargo, into the "Gambia" and into canoes :- Two packages of mails on the "Falaba". Divided them ; kept mine, & sent the rest by "Gambia", to visit Bella :- Capt. Watkins not very obliging in arrangements for Janie, as a suspected passenger to Gabon :- Went on. Had a welcome song :- Below the Tgunyè, came a heavy rain ; but Janie, Iga, Mary & I kept dry, in the chalet-house on the stern :- Landed at Andinde beach, 6 7. P.M :- No one there to meet us, or to welcome, or to tell us where we were to go. Presently Ajidi said Mr. Gore had left word he were to come to his house, on the Hill. Then came M. Carmin, to welcome us, & presently M. Gacon :- Went to Andinde house & sent on Janie, Iga, & Mary carried by one of my people, & led by the Gordé boy, who had come with a lantern. I waited till all the luggage was discharged, and filled in the Andinde dining-room, & sent up to the Hill certain pieces, wh. were needed by us at once:- the school boys' fear of leopards. A parcel of letters awaiting me, at Avdindo, which had just come by the "Duala":- Boxes of cloth, cod-fish & other things had arrived for me per "Duala":- Then I walked up the long path alone to the Hill:- Welcomed at Mrs. Goods:- Many happy, playing with Bertie, & with a little "lusk cai" (cinet, or perhaps genet) kind of cat:- Janie washed Mary, while I ate supper:- Long talk with Mrs. Good, about arrangements for our journey,- & probabilities of steamer, for Janie to go to Gaboon on a visit & plans for new Chapel & and elders, &c. &c.:- Sat up late, reading letters:- My thigh painful, with its large phlegmon:- Rain at night.

Thursday 14th. Rain still falling. Rain diminished, about 9. A.M.:- Went, in advance, to Avdindo, with Janie, Iga, & Mary, to put away luggage, divide hers & mine, take what I needed for my journey, & put in a pile what she needed on the Hill:- Mrs. & Mrs Good followed:- the packing our food-box:- Settling the matter about the obscene song of yesterday, the leader of wh. proved to be Agwijo, & not Atāka, the investigation was not a pleasant-

[Journey]

one:- (On our return from the Jongwe [illegible] had to Atâke to Ecimuli, refused to carry Jamie's things to the Hill):- Off by 10. A. M.:- Carried box of cloth, to be placed on the "Ithile":- Went to Hatton & Cookson's for gun and powder, for Azâze:- The Lord arranged for Mrs. Harding to go by "Talata", when it should come down river:- On to Mr. Letts's, and arranged for my boxes to go to Talaguza, by "Ithile", and for Jamie to go by "Dunlop" on the 23d:- Down river to Jongwe's, & took him in the boat:- Three of my people were with me, as passengers, Ogbudaga, Ndâmbi, and Ombago:- Did not stop for dinner, ate in the boat:- At Orânga, left off Ndâmbi & Ogbudaga, the latter sick:- On to Igenja, ate lunch in the boat:- Landed after dark, thigh hurt me very much:- Welcomed by Nora & others:- & hearty prospect; Mosquitoes troublesome.

Friday 15th. The "Orion", with Mr. Deming, on its way up river, stopped to get wood. Mr. D. ashore, and conversing about the R. C. priests, at Mauji, buying slaves & many women,- Ombago's mother & grandmother, Pâwa,- Kawa,- Ajanga,- Kamonda,- Nâmbi,- Mitingwi, &c. &c.

Took a good bath & felt more comfortable: Privately asked Wira, Yongwe, and Mâmbi, separately, about the meaning of the obscene boat-song; they all justified my interpretation of it:- Delay in the afternoon, for the people to gather for meeting:- About 5. P.M., I preached, held congregational meeting, - organised 52 people, from Ogove ch., into a 2d. Ogove church. Elected Wora, Abemba, & Simeon, ruling Elders:- Mr. Good then ordained & installed them.

Satty 16th. Mr. Good, at session meeting. I with my wife; many visitors. I preached Preparatory service, in afternoon.

Sabbath 17th. The Lord's table, in the morning: 1 man & 3 women baptised:- A French gun-boat passed up:- At meeting in afternoon, I baptised a babe:- Mr. Good off, preaching at a Fan village:- Applications to go, visit me to Mingunga, Epamba, - Mbigino, - Onanga, Remando &c.: Many thoughts in the evening star-light, - tropic leaves, - soft wind, - thoughts of changes in the land in the past 10 years: town so quiet and civilised and respectful; good houses, our hospitable reception by the people.

Monday 18th. Off about 8. A.M., with friends Rengogo, King Rapuke, appeared.

Lord, on the journey to the Lakes. On the way up river, stopped to preach and eat at a village, Lâmbe, where I remember stopping to eat and preach, with Peter Bella & Kongolo, 10 years ago:- A lad in the village, a member of the Class, with his hand wounded by a gun:- R.C. influence in that village:- Crossed to the left bank, to a Fan village, near Azâze's old Finandi-Po town. Mr. Lord went ashore, to preach:- Those Fan very savage looking & very dirty; women scratching each other's heads for lice, and eating the insects! On to Oranga, by 4. P.M.. Mr. Lord crossed, in a canoe, to the left bank, again to preach: Semtune's nice home; his comfortable room for me:- Bathing my thigh with hot water:- meeting in evening: Mbalé's mother; Ogandaga's wife. Azâze came, to call on me, & thanked for the gun & powder, and gave me a fowl. Nwolé to Mary & Jane.

Tuesday 19th, Oranga and Mbijino, who had come with me from Igenja, left, to go on up river, & the boat prepared for going into the Lakes:- The journey into the exit-; recognised old places! Entered Lake Oranga; stopped at a village, on an island, to preach;- A fine place of wind and rain compelled us to discharge the boat: Ate dinner there, and delayed till the rain slackened. Then, went on, in the rain, over a route I recognised, until we came to near the entrance to Lake Ogēmwe; beyond this, I had not gone in the past: Beautiful islands, and prairies on the hill-sides:- By 4. P.M., reached Bigwais Scripture-reading village, Olamba:- My boils very painful:- Surprised to see my runaway Nañandi employed as Bigwais's assistant:- Was pleased with the confidence of some little children in me, in the evening worship.

Wed'y 20: Started from Ogēmwe, out to Lake Ezanga; hot day; long pull; headache; stopped at a large tumble-down village, whose people were very forward and disrespectful; a young man there, who had worked with me, at Kāngwe. He actually asked for recent R. C. school-boys books; Ate; Heard of the "King of the Water", who takes toll of all fishermen on Lake Ezanga. People of the town begging for gifts:- Aweya had just preceded us, at the village. So also, we heard, that he had just been at three other villages we stopped at :- My sick head-ache increased very much ; and, after hearing the miserable taunts of the "King of the Wahi", I vomited freely :- At Avoya's Akile town, Ngiabeta, by 6. P.M. Felt free from head-ache : thought my boils hurt, walked to the rear of Avoya's house, on the rolling prairie, to view the spine of range of the Ashira Hills :- The prairie dotted in wonderful-shaped ant-hills, as described by Du Chaillu :- new prairie flowers. Heavy rain at night :- Talk on witchcraft-murders.

Thursday 21st, The Mpongwe traders, Ogombedinge, starting for the factories, we followed, to get out of the Lake to the Ogove River. We over-missed the opening of the creek through the long grass. We tried shots at birds, &c, but shot only one fish-eagle :- long route, winding in a desolate region :- rapids, at the Akile town, for a late dinner ; Bought a small antelope :- got pets of a variety of plantain, "Elephant plantain" :- Emerged, at 6. P.M, into Ogove river, at village of Ompomonenina, having passed Ogombedinge twice, on the way : while Chief Goval went to another village, [illegible] [Ogove River] (March 1889.

breach, the R.C. schol children, at Onyo-mouâna, complained of my giving the use of a house I had been assigned for the use of the R.C. priest :- after some delay and hard words, we left, and went to another adjacent village : The R.C. people kept up their noisy meeting, near where we were holding ours :- That night,
the boil began to discharge.

Friday 22d. Hot morning pain; headache;- At Nkoutâliyé by 9. A.M.:- In Ambamandi: comfortable little house:- Our Gorilla boy with Elder Yongwe :- I bathed, & boil felt easier, but headache increased:- The "White" passed down:- No news of the "Talabi", or a letter from Mrs Harding had gone: Bread and letters, from Mrs Good & sister Bella:- Visitors, Agonjor Ayoja, Agandaga, Inândi, &c,
Meeting, in afternoon, for organisation. Elected, as Elders, old Mâmbâ, Ntyanga, & Rowontyo.
They were then ordained & installed; The headache disappeared:- Boil discharging.
Sent letters & Orikis, Nkanga.

Saturday 23d. Felt almost well again, free from headache: & walk a little, as the boil was well discharged:- "Jeanne Louise" passed down river, at dusk, though it was the "Falaba"; wondering and speculating about the "Falaba", where she was, or what doing :- Visitors coming & going. Kasuvamani, & his wife Amanda, & their little babe, - Ogula the pilot.

Sabbath 24th. Dark clouds, wind; saw rain coming, & went to church, though it was not yet time. Heavy rain. People slow in collecting together. The "Dualla" passed down. I stood near the door outside, & received handkerchief, & 2 handkerchiefs responded, I suppose Jamie H's and Miss Harding's.

The morning service was interrupted by people coming late :- 10 people, (6 women) baptised. Collection of beads, tumbler, plate, cloth, &c.: rather amusing to see the plate pushed into the collection hat! Aziza came to complain against me, because Mr. Hood has refused her baptism, because of my report of her habit of lying; when I gave Jamie H., as my witness, she said she would quarrel with Jamie.

Monday 25th. All the congregation was scattered yesterday: Aweya's brother, Kpanda, came to get employment; but, he was too late :- Warm day: Water of river high & strong: No good camping-place, for dinner, because point too long, & the long dale [illegible] at a plantation, in Kenje creek, & ate at the hut of a Galwa slave, who was very kind, & who remembered me, from Kâugwe days :- Emerged into Ajumba river : descend, with Mr. Good, about a certain hill, Mr. S thought was Kâugwe : Saw a vine & pod, wh. the crew said was ordai (Strophanthus) poison :- Landed near old Mkâmi-house landing, of Kâugwe Hill; climbed the steep hillside; went on across path to the Good house. Saw Mary sitting down in a chamber, - did not reveal myself till she was done. Her glad welcome, and g'rat repetition of "My dear father comes home!", all afternoon :- News of Mrs. M.'s drowning :- Story of the going of Jane M. & Mrs Wardley :- Hearing of chimpanzees, at night. had been told the story of the leopard attacking Mr. Good's dog. Dicy.

Tuesday 26th, Writing letters all morning :- In afternoon, preparing boxes, for the journey back to Talaguga :-

Wed'y 27th. The crew were to plan to come up to get my loads, & at 6.30. A.M., the hill leaving Mary asleep, I went all the way to Mndinde, to call them :- Met Kindo coming & he had called the others; but they were slow to follow : Mtâka & Ensimwi in the last to come:- Agonjo had offend jealousy rather than to be entirely dismissed, to come back to his former ordinary work, at Salaguga, till I could restore my confidence in him:- Hurried back to the hill reading, on the way, a letter Agonjo gave me from Jane M/ Sh, she had written at the "Gantang" the Saty 23d written she had gone to await the "Dalhousie" going:- Ate breakfast hastily, & took Mary, & hastened down to Andindo, hurried the loading of the boat, & was actually off by 5 minutes to 8. o'clk, Had 11 crew, so, just Agonjo at the rudder by me, & I devoted myself to Mary:- Good progress,- Ate, at 11.30, in the camp, at head of N'Kânja island (Walker), opposite mouth of Ngonya: On, with good progress, till dusk, at native headers home, on Sambo's (Gore) old site, opposite head of Gore island (Mongerika): Mary very tired & sleepy:- Soon went to bed with her, leaving evening prayers for Agonjo.

Thursday 28th Mary had a little strip of cloth, wh. the town women paid me Rs, & I did not understand her statement; & for a little while, doubted her, when she said she had found it at Kângwe, she was right.

Warm day; but, the boom over the stern protected us. Stiff strong water; slow progress. Had hoped to reach Kere-ebo by night; gave up the hope, & thought for Akogo:- A sudden-fair loosened: fortunately, the "Salala" was still at anchor, where it had been 2 weeks ago, repairing its boiler, & the Capt Watkins had a staple forged for me. All going & repairing last us an hour: Ate, in the forest, alone Rations:- Hope for reaching Akogo failed, & I aimed for Ciamfomo-Essen. At dusk, reached its lower landing. The Bakile gave me only a tumble-down house, wh. I blamed Adaantsi for considering good enough for me: was vexed, & ordered my things back into the boat, & we dropped down river a few hundred yds, & built a fire in the forest, & slept in the boat:- Very uncomfortable!

Friday 8th. Started again, at 7. A. M. As Agonjo & his Fan had been left yesterday afternoon, at their town, & I had 9 paddlers, I gave up hope of reaching Salaga to day, & called "Kinjogo" to the rudder, leaving 8 paddles: Made good progress: Ate early, at the lower landing of the Bitûgâ town, where Njambe had been trading, near the fishing-lake:- Many went ashore:- I did not:- Remarkable, cool passage:- Hope of reaching Talaguga this day, revived, & I took the rudder, & Njambe returned to the paddle:- The boat flew:- Reached Talaguga at candle-light:- Our coming was observed, & the Chinese lanterns were lighted, for a welcome:- Many had been sleeping, for 2 hours:- Glad to be at home:- Discharging & putting things away:- Set up, at night, hearing Sister Bella's report, and going mine.

Saturday 30th. Sent to Asange, to Mr McTaggart, the letter sent per mr from Aguena:- Excused the men from work to day:- Putting away contents of trunks:-

Sabbath 31st. A large number of Fan at Church:- I tried to induce them to take charge of, & take to their town the Fan man, who had wandered on their premises, while I was away, who had been thrown, by Ntula, into the forest to die:- but they wd not take him, & he is a care and nuisance here.

Big wash of Mary's and our clothing boiled, on the late journey :- Paid last month's wages, in afternoon, and inflicted the punishments I had threatened, for mis-deeds on the late journey; instead of giving to all a present- of the time spent at their villages, while I was with Mr. Good in the Lakes, I deducted the time from Atâke $2,00, Escimré $1.00 (and dismissed them from my service) and Adâmbe $1.00.

On Tuesday afternoon, Agonjo came, with Okendo & their 2 people; & Ajégâ came, with plantains. Paid Agonjo & company wages for March. On Wed.y, Agonjo & company left; ~~&~~, as passengers, went Montâmi & Akengami; Atâke & Escimre; and Adâmbe, who said he was sick :- A Fan lad, brought by Agonjo, Ngwa, staid to work & study: The remaining company seem quite reduced in ~~numbers~~ numbers :- A very heavy rain at night. Thursday, A steamer (the "Jean-Louis"?) which passed up yesterday, went down to-day :- A charmingly beautiful day, after last night's rain.

Friday Apr. 5th. Just after breakfast, found Bringe had ceased work, and was eating: sent him to his house, to lose the day, for a day:- Wrote acknowledging cousin James (Hannah) Hunting's marriage:- People from Ajonna came to sleep, for the night,- to leave their canoe in my care,- & to carry their trade goods back into the bush:- A French gun-boat passed up. Evidently raining somewhere to-day; for, the air in the afternoon, was not appreciably hot, as it has been, for more than a month past:- My boils, my numerous, but diminishing in size, I take this as a sign:- Rain, rain.

On Monday, the "Dumba" passed up, but no signals for me. Was very much disappointed, there was not a word of news. Am wondering where Mr. Good is, or what he is doing. And, at night, was annoyed at Abumba coming to ask for increase of wages, and, at Mbala's wanting to have leave of absence, when I especially need him, to stay here, while I shall be away in U.K. On Tuesday, the "Dumba" passed up river, whistled for letters, but I had none ready. A French Gun-boat passed up. On Wed., Sister Bella, in her own ... pinnace, went shooting. The Gun-boat passed down river. Find the "Jean Louis" passed up: We are not staying at present. I am bilious; Grace with a cold in her head; Ranjoño, abscess in ear: Nicola, fever; Biri, a cold.

I think the Dry Season has come. The rain is falling; no lightning; do not hear any more thunder; skies clouded, and nights cold.
Thursday June 6th. Last night there was a heavy shower of rain with thunder; shutters down most of time until, and got both tents dried; I had a slight chill:- Have nausea, no wish for operation; medicine. Did not write or read much. Grace was very much better:- In afternoon, went to the Lighthouse for a walk with her:- At 5, P.M. saw on the distance, a steamer which I thought it was some mail from down river. It was the "Jean Louis" going down river, & it had kindly stopped to take letters. I had some ready. I am waiting for letters: Ranjoño seems to be losing his energy and sense, he works so stupidly!

Journey

On the 27e, got together the last items, for the journey; and, after dinner, started, crowded. At Njonne, stopped to give Njêgâ 1 axe 5/- and 1 bott cloth 5/- = 10.00 trust, for outparo for 250 paid (2 x 2):- At Bitâgâ, stopped to let off little Mitaçâ:- Past Nguilaka, let off Nguia, at his town:- At Agonjo's, by 5.30, to let off Njêgâ, Adgâ, and Ngenia, and to spend the night:- Had a headache. In the evening, paid Agonjo and his 2 crew.

On the 28e, started, with headache, at about 8. A.M., having 5 of my own crew,- the 2 strangers from Talaguga, & 1 passenger from Agonjo:- Ate in the forest, below Goree Island:- At 4.30. P.M., reached Andiondé:- No people at the landing; for, preparatory service was not out. Left much of the luggage at Andiondé, and went to stay on the hill. Head still aching.

Mbala annoyed one by following his wife (Muvangeno), who had to go with many to the Hill, but, there was no place for him, in the Girls house. On the 29th Muvangeno sick, and Mbala annoyed, wanting to leave immediately for town. I was vexed, and told her to go, and not return. Then, Mbala was humble, and both stayed. Was not able to preach for Mr Ford, in the afternoon, for headache:- Mess Allegret & Tessiers very polite, at my arrival and afterward.

On the 30th. All at church. I was weak, from operation of medicine; but, the headache was gone:- Preached, and assisted Mr. Ford in the Sacrament: and, in the afternoon missionary Conference, added remarks to Mr. Fords address.

Monday July 1st } On Sabbath, Agâge had Tuesday " 2nd } arrived, from Orânga, Wed.y " 3rd } with a dead enormous &c male gorilla. I could do nothing about it to day. On Monday after breakfast, skinned and decapitated the head, and, with Mr Fords aid, took off the top of the skull, and got out the brain; but, it was softened, by the 2 days' journey to Kâgwe, and was worthless for Dr Morton's anatomical purposes. Nevertheless, I paid Azâze the promised $20., and added $10. for his trouble:- In the afternoon, was going with Mrs. Gard to the Factories; but, Mary was so disappointed that she could not go, as I would not leave her in tears, and I came back to her:- On the 2d, went to Inenga, to Hadji Jaelay, for a bargain of cloth with but Damizza and for guns and Kettle & rum. In inquiring for gorilla, which I hope to get. Mary went with me, and was amused at hippos.- a dog & her 3 puppies; a porcupine, and chimpanzee:- Returned to a fine dinner, to wh. Mrs Gard had invited the 4 Frenchmen:- Mr. Gard was not well, with an on-coming fever:- Mrs. Allegret was to take a photograph of Mary. She was dressed, and everything was ready, when she fell from the porch on a bench, and bruised her forehead, & head & thigh. It took a long time to quiet her; and, in the meanwhile, Bertie Good had his picture taken. Finally, Mary was taken, in 2 sittings.- The Gem boat had come from Manji, bringing word that the "Elobi" would soon arrive.- At night, Mr. Good picks.

On the 8th. Woke, with a strong impression that Janie H. will either come today, or be met by us, as we would be on our way down river tomorrow.- Re-arranged our luggage at Andâmbe.- By noon, Mr. Good was worse.- About 2. P.M., Janie H. suddenly appeared, by canoe, from Imenga, having come by steamer "Galton", on Tuesday night.- Went, in boat, with Janie & Mary, at once, to get her goods.- Returned at 7. P.M.. Was so relieved, in my care of Mary, to have Janie back again! She had come by "Elobi" to Manji, and there by "Galton" hither. Messrs Allegret & Teisseire had been with Mr. Good all afternoon, and stayed all night: it was a severe attack of malignant Fever.

Thursday July 4th } Gave up to journey Friday " 5th } to the Lakes, for the Sat.y " 6th } present, till Mrs. Govd shall be better:- Sent Jamie N., by canoe to Imenga, to get some of her goods forgotten there:- Read books, but did very little, being sleepy from last night. On Friday 5th, was sleepy again, from sitting up at night.
Reading "Little Lord Fauntleroy":- Sent Kanjogo out, to fish; he caught only a few, which I divided between him and Mary, Bertie, & Iga:- An excitement at night, - 2 Fan caught, at Andendé, attempting to kidnap a Fan lad.
On Saturday 6th, felt slightly feverish, with the late nights:- Mrs Govd's symptoms better:- Feel depressed, and disheartened about many things.
Sabbath July 7th. Preached. Only Mrs. Bacon was present, of the whites. Mrs Govd. with her husband sick; Mr Carmien went off in my boat to Lembarene, to call the French doctor.
Mary went with me to church: Mr Carmien returned without the doctor, - who had gone to Manjé, with the sick ex-Commandant Labastie :- At Pch. Pch., in afternoon, Hôlen Bella had a severe cold, and could not be present :- Just at close of Pch. Pch., the new Commandant, Bodillet, called at Andendé :- Mrs. Good much better; I had given him 2 injections of chicken-soup, in the morning :- Jamie H. was late, in the evening, to cook to Native Army: I depend on her so much.

Monday July 8th } Scripture Reader Elder Wara & his wife, Tuesday " 9th } Kera, had come last week, to get their wages, but Mrs Good could not attend to them. They went back on Tuesday. On Monday, Mrs Jones, of Hatton & Cookson, was sent for, to consult about means of getting Mrs Good to Manjé & thence to Gatoma, on her way to America :- The incident of meeting Ndaka, on the zigzag path down the Hill, as he was coming up, at night on Monday. Mrs Good packing for the journey to America.

All these days, the 10th & 11th, anxious for the changing symptoms of Mrs. Good's disease: the anxious point was that her temperature was still so high. Sent letters, on Thursday afternoon, to go on Friday morning, by French gun-boat.

On Friday, about 10.30 a.m., after having sent down to Andende Mr. Gordi's boxes, he was carried, by his people, on a cot, to Andende. Waiting for the "Gambia" to come. Had a short religious service. about noon; they left, on the "Gambia," with Mr. Jeancins, my boat having taken their baggage around to Ngowa. came back to the Hill in the afternoon, all my loneliness and sad.

On Sat., 13th putting away the scattered articles about the house. Had an unpleasant discussion with Janie H., in the afternoon. I thought she had deceived me, about part of her past history.

On Sabbath morning, Janie did not come, in time to dress Mary, and I thought she stayed away on purpose, perhaps vexed with the discussion on Saturday afternoon. I preached; but did not feel well all day.

On Monday, the mail came, in the afternoon. Letter from Jenny Gaiman, Mrs Ogden,

Mr Reading and Roberts Louis's wedding card, which had been mis-sent to Constantinople, Turkey. Another unpleasant discussion with Jessie N., about a mosquito net she had lost at Mainji. I thought she deceived me. Packing boxes and making arrangements, for the journey to the Lakes tomorrow. Sister Bella not very well.

} Preparing for the journey to the Lakes. Sister Bella not well. Left her at Kangwe on the 15th. Final arrangements, at Andendé, for the journey.

At night, Mr. Gacon obtained, from Dakas village, the body of a hippo he had shot, at noon near Irenga, wh. the Dakas people had appropriated.

Early on the 16th at Andendé. Excitement about the hippo. Started at 8. A. M., with Mr. Gacon. The Dakas people wanted us to stop, for they had called the commandant, & a priest was with him. The people were very angry. The Commandant went on to Andendé, & we went on our way. Slow paddling by my 6 people. It was 12 o'clock when I stopped, to change to oars. At 1. P. M., stopped at Avaya's, to eat, and to take Ambamba as guide :- Stopped at Yongwe's at Ombongwe who gave me part of a leg of a goat :- On, into the Lake. Tried to urge the crew, so as to reach Okendo's befre dark. They seemed too jagged or indifferent : so, we stopped, at dusk, on a little sandy cove of an island, a few miles from Okendo's. Romantic camp. A long, & very satisfatory talk with Janie H. by the camp-fire.

On the 17th rose early, &, on to Okendo's. Received by his people. Ogowamani was away ; & Okendo was near & was called. The people of the village had expected us, & Ogowamani had built a house for me :- After Okendo came, we arranged the goods, & breast & tent.

Mr. Gacon went to hunt, - signs of gorilla's were seen, but no animal.

On the 18th. We both went, but saw no signs, except of pigs :- but we saw gorillas. In the afternoon, we both & my men went again, & Ogula saw a gorilla. At night fixed my shot-gun with 3 bullets, for the hunt tomorrow. A long chat with Janie

N., at night. On the 19th. Mr Gacon rose early, & started at 5. A.M. with 3 men. I followed an hour later, in the boat with 4 other men. We came on fresh signs of gorillas, & Ogula & Mr Gacon saw a female & child, but they escaped. afterwards, we came to the place where they all had slept, probably 20 of them: Resting in the afternoon, reading & writing up this diary.

Sat. July 20th } Rose at 3. A.M. & the 20th Sabbath " 21st } & we all went Monday " 22nd } to a new place, where a gorilla had been heard. I was dissatisfied with the plan of going to this place. I wished to go where we were yesterday. After a fruitless search, we went to yesterday's place: divided into 2 parties, but found nothing. I got tired & left, going to the beach, & walked around to the boat, & we all came back to the village. I had a headache. In the afternoon, Mr Gacon went out by himself, & saw an eagle and a big baboon. News had come, a day or so ago, about the Commandant's decision, at N'Gouye, in the Kippo matter with the Dakar people. Also, heard the "Gambia" had returned, leaving Mr Gore at Manji. On Sabbath 24th heard Mr Gore had obtained passage from Manji for Gabon. Held preaching. A woman fainted in the village, making some confusion. In the evening, people dancing & drumming, to drive away the spirit of a recently dead slave, who they said was vexing another woman.

Monday. M. Gaeon & company went, about 6. A. M., to look after a gorilla that was heard, but they came back smitten. A flying squirrel was shot by Mr. Gaeon. An iguana caught by the town boys. M. Gaeon went hunting in afternoon by himself. Bejman came to visit me.

Tuesday	July 23rd	Ogula and Asoamamini went before daylight, far away all day, to hunt for gorilla, in a new place, near where the Inyangwe man Ogula is trading:- Mr. Gaeon in afternoon, went with Ent, to look for hippopotamus: he came back late, with 3 pelicans he had shot, at the Bird Islands:- Osamaamui had returned, but unsuccessful:- Arranging for leaving tomorrow:- Made gifts to Osamaami; but he was not grateful.

On Wed'y 24th, Loading up the boat:- At the Bird-Islands, stopped for dinner, and stayed all the afternoon, resting, as I had a headache. Mr Bacon hunted for egrets; he got none, but shot 6 pelicans, the feathers of wh. Jamie N. kept, and the meat the crew dried:- Mary enjoyed bathing in the lake, from a sandy beach:- at night, she was dissatisfied & she was away from me,- as she slept in the tent with Jamie N. and Iga.

On Thursday 25th, paused on, starting late, as Mary slept late; stopped at Ngâwâ's village of "London", to embark him, and eat dinner: a miserably small village. Stopped at Ntyawa (where formerly Dore and Ntjiwa lived) to buy groundnuts.

The boat was very crowded; for, my legs, and my right knee I had hurt a few days ago, was very sore and inflamed.

Out in the Ogove, met Renards, who said he had just come from Kângwe, and had left sister Bella with them.

Reached Yongwé's village of Elovi, after dark, at 7. P. M.: Was cordially received and entertained: Just before supper, a chill came on me, and I did not sleep well that night.

On Friday 26, was weak and stiff.- Sick natives came to me, for medicine:- Received James Kanga's employer came to salute me:- Was too weak from the chill, to hold the rudder. Mr Eacan held it. The crew pulled outrageously slowly. I was exceedingly vexed at Nkolu, the station. Stopped at Aivija's village, to take on Tsangala, whom I had let go to town, to sleep over night:- Still slow pulling. The crew were not insolent, but simply silently disobedient:- Finally, at 11.45 reached a good Okota, for dinner. Hasted our dinner; and, at 1.30. P. M., started again. I took the rudder, and warned the crew, that I would not sleep on the way, even if they did not reach Kanga till midnight. Then they pulled very well, all the afternoon. Passed the Factories at 5.30 P. M. The "Dwalla", "Alice", "Pygmee", and "Gambia" at anchor:- Mr Britt again at Agamma:- Reached Andende, at 6.30.

after discharging the larger things, left Jacob in charge, and went on to the Hill, whither Janie H. had preceded with Mary.- Found sister Bella quite sick in bed: bilious congestion of the liver, and heavy cold had settled in the glands of her throat:- On Saturday 27: went to the Factories, to inquire about steamer &c. My knee, quite painful, but I went to Ambindi, to look over my luggage, to see if it was all right, stand empty.

On Sabbath 28th, preached: a pretty-good congregation:- Sab. Sch. in afternoon:- Sister Bella better: began to consider the possibility of leaving her, so as to go on to Salaganga on Wed.y.

On Monday 29th, Dawson, Nkola and Avokenda deserted, leaving me rather short of numbers for a carr to Salaganga:- Ombaga's mother, and other Ijenja women arrived, on a joinny from their village:- Sent again to the Factories, for news about steamer. Feel disconcerted at the unreliability of these people, & the uncertainty about the mission, & its future.

Journeys. On Monday 9th, promptly at 8 o'clock chasing trees, loading boat & canoe, & left Angitka, Etenda & Londe in charge:- Elder Abeuta, with his wife, & Tabala & Ombago, started, in canoe, in advance:- The "Oka" passed us:- After early dinner, started in boat with 6 crew & Capt Kept & pistol, & my family. Kept admirable time, & exactly an hour each, to Rairiala Tjoma, Rere-vole, Ponui-Rua, and Agonjo's. arrived, in advance of Abeuta.
Left most things in the boat, arranging beds for night:- Mary's cold better:- Enjoyed supper:- Did not sleep very well; for, Mary crowded me in bed in her restlessness.

On Tuesday 10th. Arrival of death of my just wife; also, of my just entrance to the Ogowe:- Ate, in the forest, where the children found vines to swing on, and roots on which to climb and sit:- At Andende by 5.30.- Long time in discharging, and waiting, while the crew carried the goods to the Hill. Some of Mr. Goodi's people volunteered to help, except Adaka, and Ogula:- It was dark, 8. o'clk, when I reached the Hill. Some confusion about the boxes of food and bundles of bedding. Ate hastily; and, at 9.P.M., left Andende, with 4 crew, for Ezunda factory, to get milk & flour from my goods lying there: Mr Koffamy was helpful and obliging. Back again, to the house on the Hill, by 12 midnight. All of Wed'y, was writing up, in their proper book from Mr. Goodi's notes, the Minutes of Session of Igenja, and the Roll of Members of Igenja.

In afternoon, went to get the missing bundles of bedding, & other things at Andende:- Abumba and crew had gone on down to Igenja, in the morning. Continued writing:- Sent some letters by govt. mail:- also a letter to Mrs. Drake, of Hatti at Petit Lamma:-

In the evening, packing my clothing with

Janie His did :- Went to bed late.

On Thursday 12th, Rose early :- My men of 4, and one new one (Agâwe & Jemba, I left to help at Kângwe) came early, to carry down luggage, to the Srat :- Many pretendants, & she made me an unhappy memory in leaving, as she feared discipline :- Janie His tears :- Left at 8. A.M. :- At Avoya's by 11.30 A.M. :- Talk with him; & a Mûmbâlija elder with his nice little child. Plans for gorilla hunt in October. Stopped at Elon's, for Elder Yongwe, who accompanied in his canoe :- saw Pinture, at Odânga :- Canoe & fantastic women with Renjago, on a dance excursion. At Jenja, by 5.30 P.M. Had had many troubled thoughts, on the way, about Avoya & Janie H. Welcomed by Wora, Abunda, Mângiânwa, and others :- Wora's comfortable room, & easy bed :- Agreably disappointed. (But there were no mosquitoes, & May were bad, day & night, last March.) Yongwe arrived, in time for prayers :- Went to my room early, but read till 9.30 P.M. At night slept well.

On Friday 13th, Prayers in the Church :- Visits & welcome from Pâwa, Kwa, Atyêri, Renjago, & his little girl who was not afraid of me, but smiled :- Taking gifts of iguana for Mr

Concert:- Bought egg, for taking to Mary:- Lads & young men coming to read & spell:- Going over the Roll of the Class, with Wora, to verify their names and standing:- Read, and looked over the minutes of Wombaliya.

A warm pleasant day. Had expected to have Session-Meeting, in the afternoon. But, no people have yet come in from the other villages: and I am not willing to examine the very young members of the Class, who are the only ones as yet present. About 5. P.M. Mrs. Allegret came in his boat, & with his crew. He brought me a letter, from Sister Bella, a "note" from Mary & Iga. I felt somewhat relieved of my anxiety about Mary.

Saty Sept. 14 } Feel disappointed that people Sabbath " 15 } have not been gathering in.

Had begun Session-meeting, last night (Friday): continued, with a few prayers on Saty A.M. Declared to enrol, in Class, small boys, & to examine for baptism boys, & any young men, or women, who were learn to not making faithful effort to read:- Was disappointed, in afternoon, that the women did not come to the prayer-meeting.

Rev'd Jacker sick: visited him, and a sick members of Kisi:- Rejoiced at Mâmbû's return to the Church.

On Sabbath, During the opening services of church, the veil was raised, in the adjoining village, over the sudden death of Kivai's father:- A bright warm day:-

Monday Sept. 16:

Rose with a sick-headache:- James and his wife Doubinha, in consultation with me. He wants to put her away,- but has no proper reason:- The dead man of yesterday was buried this morning:- Lundo (Daniel) came to see me, about his offences against the church, for wh. he was to have been removed, but he was not here on Saty:- Mrs Allegut left about 12.30, for Orânga and the Lakes.

In the afternoon, several women, Yitangwe, Kulembembe, and Ocasonguzagaji, came to me, a leg to read, or talk about reading:- Mângiavina arranging, about coming to work at Talagunga with me:- Had headache still at noon, & did not eat dinner,- only drank tea.

Tuesday Sept. 17th Rose early. Headache only little better:- Boys prompt about loading up:- Just as I was ready to start, saw the "Athili & Quelle" in the distance down river. Waited for them, hoping for letters. But, the "Druella", as it passed, paid there was no mail. Thinks there must be some mistake.- Started, near 9. A.M.- Stopped at Nambyano, & heard the reading & spelling of 3 members of the 4th Class, Romondo and his little wife.- On to the "Liverpool," & at dinner,- & taught 3 members of Class. One was Una, of Oranga, who, against Avinjiano's wish, asked for (& got) passage with me to Oranga.- On to Lamba,- but, there were no members of the Class there. All the people in the villages are away, cutting their gardens,- having left there late.- A sharp wind came up, & some rain.- At Oranga, by 4.30 P.M. Bought eggs, bush-cows, and plantains. Taught 3 members of the Class, at night,- all of them women.

Wed. 7 Sept. 18:

Left Oranga early. Mwanyego gave me a fresh fish.- Stopped at Ngomo, & taught several Class-members, who were visiting there.- Ngaga followed me from his town, and was vexed that I had not stayed with him.-

Passed on to Aningozano, & at dinner

there. Enjoyed the fresh fish. No class-members were there. People late in their garden-cutting:- Came on to Izzyna.- Ntyanga was not at home. Taught one woman, a young mother, wife of Ntogo. Shortly after I left, met Ntyanga coming down from "England":- The "Oka" passed up:- On to "England". Was not pleased with the dirty-looks of the town. Taught 2 class-members:- Was surprised to see Agonjo's people there; do not know why he has come so early:- On to Ebobi. Taught 2 lads:- The women did not think they could learn:- A tin of bread & letter from sister Bella was handed me there. It had come by Agonjo:- Felt anxious, about Undi; even though Bella's letter said she was well:- Established myself at Orimbi-ano, in Ambamani's home:- People coming to salute:- Odimbosuka's sister:- Allowed Ampamba to go across river, for 3 days. Feel lonely this evening: but am well.- Free from my headache.

Thursday Sept. 19th. Took a good bath last night, and clean clothes this morning:- Wrote letters to sister Bella, Jamie No, Mary, Edgar to have them ready when the messenger with the Communion bread, comes to-morrow:- Wrote also a letter to be sent down river to Inbonj at Akâmi:- Children and members of the class coming, to be taught to read:- Agonjo came, & explained about his having come so early from his post. Atjegâ and Adzâ were with him:- Mended a weak place in the boat, in the afternoon:- A bright pleasant day:- Heavy rain at night. River rising rapidly:- Sat up late, reading the story in the Phila "Press", of the terrible disaster of the flood at Johnstown in Pennsylvania:- Could not sleep, for a long while, with thought of the little children drowned, & the agony of parents, - and I thought of my little Mary under similar circumstances.

Friday Sept. 20th. An eye-worm attacked my right eye last night: a little better this morning:- A French gun-boat passed up, this morning:- Elders Mâmbâ, Remontgo & Jongwe came, but no applicants for Baptism had yet gathered from the villages: so there was no formal meeting of Session:- only a rinsing & examination of the Class Roll:- The alleged arrival, at noon:- Session-meeting held, in the afternoon:- but the applicants are few and very ignorant :- About 7. P.M, came a messenger from Kāngwa, with Communion Bread, & the mail, - Letters from Frank & Wagnalls May 10; from Don Wills' wife, May -; from Freeman Dulles, June 13; Statia Clark Robts, June 21; from Jenny Freeman, June 24; Dr Freeman, July 1st; Miss Todd, July 2; Dead Letter Office July 3; Mr. Reading, Aug 16; Mr. Brier, Aug. 19.

Sat up late reading :- Had had a Premier - Meeting, after evening prayers :- Heavy rain :- River rising very rapidly.
Satj. Sept 21. Continued Premier-meetings, at intervals, all day, & at night :- Examining applicants as to their reading :- Disappointed at, from the Lakes & other quarters, people deliberately stayed away for fishing, or for mourning over their mothers and their husband dead :- Azija & Ogandaga came; She is still ugly-mouthed, about her piercing having been expand by Janie H :- Applicant for work with me at Talaguga.
Sabbath, Sept. 22.
Heard morning, over in Elovi town, - a man there was near to death :- The Elders came late so the church did not begin till 10. A.M. A bright pleasant day :- Long talk, in evening with Jongere & others, about native customs.

Monday Sept. 23d
Tuesday " 24th
Wedy " 25th
Thursday " 26th

Rose early, on the 23d. & started for Kaiapoi:- Mr. Allegat's boat started a half-hour in advance:- Stopped, at Languta's town, for his wife; but she refused to come. Ate, at 11. a.m., in the Ngaqaweia creek:- Emerged by Kaiapoi creek, with some difficulty over the sand-bars:- At the Kaiapoi Hill, by 4. p.m., became very suddenly, in the parlor, where she had just been crying a little. Her cry of joy. Went with her, to the bamboo house, and surprised Jamie D. Had a head-ache, and did not eat much supper.

On Tuesday, entered records and accounts; and went to Arowhenua, to get the church records. Was sleepy, in the afternoon.

On Wedy, Began to write to Dr Cowan, in morning; but, was interrupted by the visit of Messrs Bacon, Allegat & Jessiman. Was very sleepy again, in the afternoon.

On Thursday, Began writing to Messrs Duller.

Friday Sept. 27th
Saturday " 28th
Sabbath " 29th
Monday " 30th

On the 27th, in the morning, took Picton Bella's boat, around to Mr Cs Factory. And signed "Death" news at Mr Emans'. Began Zenana Meetings, in the afternoon, & at night. On Sat.y, at Zenana Meetings all day:- At noon, came the mail. (I had heard the "Toot!" whistle on Friday evening). Mail was (besides the usual local news) from Mrs W. L. Nassau, 7 July -; brother William, July 8th; 7 July 13th, Rev. Dr J. A. Hemy; 7 July 14th, Jon Charles; 7 July 16th (185 Jany Foreman with 7 July 15th), one from brother William; Mission Letter, July 19th; Dr Gillespie, July -, and July 23rd; Mrs J. E. Robinson, July 26th, and many packages of skirt-supporters. A very important mail, requiring me to go to Salem:- Sent notes to the English & German Factors, signifying about passage to Salem:- Decided it was necessary to just go to Talagunga, on Monday:- Sent a note to Remado, in evening, to French Factory, to signify about the launch "Brazza" is going up river. Remado sent his pipes, lost the letter, & did not report to me immediately on his return. I was much annoyed at him.

[Rangwe] Sept. 1889 (115)

On Sabbath, Communion Service; a pleasant day:- In evening, was my turn.

At night, set up packing, for tomorrow's journey :- was indignant at Jemboi's coming to demand his fare, & give notice of leaving :- On the 30th, was up at 3.30, A.M., and wakened the young men, and sent them with the boxes &c to Andindi, for a bundu there to load up the canoe :- left the Hill at 5.30, A.M. Many & Argentyan followed soon :- started at 6. A.M. : but had to turn back, shortly afterward, to get Ramadan's forgotten jig of water for Mary :- started finely at 6.30. A.M. :- with 8 paddles & very little luggage, made splendid progress :- ate at 10. A.M., at a sand-bar, in sight of Island Factory : and, in the afternoon, a splendid run to Agonjo house, before 7. P.M. :-

Tuesday	Oct. 1st	On Tuesday, at 7. A.M., started again, & Agonjo with us :- Ate, at 12 noon, at Antyuma's, at Atjigai, Atjonum :- & then, to Talagoga, before 5. P.M.
Wednesday	" 2nd
Thursday	" 3rd
Friday	" 4th
Saturday	" 5th

A wonderfully rapid journey ! All safe & well :- Hasty inspection of presents :- And busy paying wages & supper, - prayers, washing (Mary) - getting clothing for the journey, and packing. Did not go to bed till 1. A. M. of Wed'y.

On Wed'y the 2d, up at 4. A. M, and off at 6. A. M.:- Stopped at Ajigâ, to give a carpenter truck for compass.:- On to Agonjo by 11. A. M., for dinner: he landed, and Ajigâ and Adzâ joined the crew.:- Wind was opposing; heavy storm-clouds.: but safely reached Andindo by/ before 7. P. M.:- Left Mary with Angentyuri, at Andindo to eat, & hurried to the Hill,- ate;- and told news.:- Back to Andindo,- changed clothes,- and started in the boat, for the German house, at 9. P. M.- Here by 10. P. M.: some time in awaking Mr. Kuhtz,- and discharging the boat's luggage on to the "Dualla": was not pleased at Mr. K.: trying to put Angentyuri into an inferior position.

On Thursday, 3d, up at 5. A. M. Hurried to gather our loose luggage; and off with the "Dualla", by 6.30. A. M.:- Heavy rain & wind; tornado clouds:- Real beginning of Rainy season, with thunder and lightning. Still reading, most of the day, in the cabin, with the children. Passed the "Falaba", at Kamanjoa:- On, at night, into the creek to Duanji Bay. Up [illegible] anchored, for ½ hour, waiting for tide to rise. – Met the French gun-boat. – "Duella" slowly and carefully crossed the Bay, over a long sand-bank of 4½ feet of water. Anchored at Nranji Post, at 11. P.M. Mr. Fahty went ashore.

On Friday 4th, Boat was sent for us, & came for our goods, and we were ashore by 7.30. A.M. The steamer from north had come & gone. Capt. Uzanki had arrived, and took charge of "Duella": which immediately loaded up, and left for Lembaun, at 1.30. P.M. – Mr. Knock was kind and obliging at the Nranji dept. – Mr. Holst & a young Mr. Harrington, of Holt's, called at night, & spent the evening. – In afternoon, I had gone to the Post, to see a tame young elephant: – went to bed early, as I was sleepy and tired: had not slept well for a week.

On Saty 5th, writing up this diary, and waiting for the expected steamer from the south. – The "Orio" & disabled gun-boat came.

Sabbath Oct. 6th } Oct. 6th A quiet day; except for Monday " 7th } visitors, from the Stan-Tuesday " 8 } hones, were coming and going.

Monday 7. Finished the long letter to Jenny Lowman, which I began on Saturday. The French man-of-war, "Heron", towing a gunboat "Saphir" :- Mr. Letz and Mr. Hazenkampf, just returned from Germany, came on their way to the Ogove. Very wet rainy day. Tuesday 8. The "Heron" left for the south :- And, just after noon, the "Saphir" left for the Ogove, ditto Mr. L. & Mr H. as passengers :- A very rainy day: everything damp and chilly :- Enjoyed fresh mandrills meat for dinner :- Mr. Furch's music on the accordeon, and his tales of his youth and soldier life.

} The mail, by French steamer, went on Sat. morning; Choir-meeting afternoon was good: we had used no influences to gather, [illegible] but all were there, except Jenny Claxton.

On Sabbath, I preached both parts, in Fangwe and English. A good audience, not lessened appreciably by Mrs. Reading's absence, except that Jenny & Kanaqudi & Gertrude were not there:- [On Saturday I had shown Jamie H. her box of clothing that came by "Kisanga"] & she wore some of it on Sabbath:- In the evening, walked on the beach with Mrs.; Pauline unkuekue company:- [On Saturday evening, I had walked with Mrs., and had read part of the letter to me, to Mrs. Reading, about the "Fabia" coming [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] and [illegible] and [illegible] that had last [illegible], and were unrecognizable; [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] to see about her property. [illegible] are [illegible] in the evening Mrs. Gault had a church session-meeting to examine her in application for the removal of her sentence of excommunication.

On Tuesday, I had to wash and dress Jean, as Jamie H. wished again to [illegible] unfinished business yesterday. A steamer, which [illegible] to visit the mines, and which anchored outside [illegible] evening, was not in sight, this morning. [illegible] was a [illegible] and her [illegible] had gone to return tomorrow.

In the morning Jamie H. had gone to the Plateau, to see about her property, but was unsuccessful. In the afternoon again, with Mrs Russell, Jean, and myself, paid her tax [illegible] Tuesday's, [illegible] Mr. de D. [illegible] as [illegible] received for him. [illegible] was a little to have gone [illegible]. To the [illegible]

[illegible] paper was given [illegible] to act for her, in the survey and protection [illegible]. On the way back, at Ba[illegible], for a boat; but, got none, but, at B's, got some sheets of Copper, in exchange for Rum. This at Banaba: in exchange for Ivory at Corisco: in talk with Francis D., in the ca[illegible].

On the 6th, at 8. A. M., came in the "Ella Wörmann", & at 9. A. M., the "Lake Bohlen", both from Glob. where there was small-pox, & both were put in quarantine. As I had expected to go south to Cape Lopez, by the "Ella", I went down to Wörmann's, to enquire. Was to be told finally, after 2. P. M.:- At 10. A. M., the "Bonny" came in. Waited till 3. P. M., for information: suddenly, saw both German steamers leave the harbor. Went to Wörmann's again, & found the vessels were forbidden to stop any where in French territory. The govt. will not allow it on Kroomen (more than 50) and 4 white men (one of them a priest) to land:- Arranged to ~~go~~ go to Cape Lopez, in the "Bonny". Hurrying to get ready: urging Jamie H. to be ready in time; but, she was slow; & even at 11. P.M., she came to get a box for her hats.

On Thursday 7th, up by 5. A.M.: my goods off with the Kroomen, at 7. A.M.: and myself with Mary, Jamie H., Iga, & the 2 Fan boys, at Mr. Letts's, by 7.30. A.M., where he and Mrs. Lubeke very kindly & politely had 2 boats ready, one for our baggage, and one for ourselves:- On board the "Bonny" by 8. A.M.: paid passage £15., for all 6 of us:- Capt. Shuycock of the "Bonny" & the doctor and Purser very attentive, though the sea was not rough, yet I ate no dinner: the Capt. had never been at Cape Lopez, & did not go fast: so he anchored, after dark, in sight of Mayji.

On Friday 8th, the "Marie Wörmann" entered the harbor, in advance of us. And the "Ambia" shortly after:- Going Mr. Davis, of Hatton:- To the "Marie Wörmann", in a Fernandian boat:- There met Mr. Knack, who took me ashore: Returned, with Ayeme and his luggage, to the "Marie

"Wadenneau", & left him there, and thence to the "Bonny", for my people & their things:- Arrive, by 10. A. M.. Met Knocks the Capt of "Ocean Valentin" busy all day loading ebony:- All three steamers up the river, - the "Ocean" at 10. P. M. - The ~~Dutch~~ "Duala" was there at anchor.

On Saturday 9th, the "Ocio" came from Ogan:- At 5. P. M., we all left, on the "Duala". Anchored, at night, in the creek. On Sunday 10th, on up the river; stopped, for wood, at Kandrâga. At night, anchored past N'gaounbe. On Monday 11th, stop- at Igenja, for wood. saw Wara, Mamba, Rengeard, Landolf, (Daniel) and others. On, past Orangâ: passing England-town, saw Okukwa dancing: passing Eloiri, saw Yangen; passed Avaya, & saw him and Azija:- At the German Factory, by 6. P. M.:- Paid the Kuhls 824. Mr Herbert, - Mr. Rastje, - Capt Uzaski. A Kongoje was given us, but it looked badly, and there was 8 known to paddle, & the Kongoje lay low in the water; the current very strong: the night dark and threatening. I was alarmed, Stopped at Hattan & Cottam's, - saw Mr Smith for a little while, - and walked around to the head of the island, sending the canoe on ahead. In "Nyândwe" town, many attracted a great deal of attention. While waiting for the canoe to come around, Ombêga, a church-member, politely offered us a home, for the night: but, we went on, to get to our journey's end:- At Andendi, G.F.P.M. Mr Allegot got us supper: beds were made up for us. Rain at night.

On Tuesday 12th, after breakfast, went up a hill, with our baggage. Had headache all day:- On the 13th. In morning, gave the Friends brethren acct. of the Gaboon meeting. In the afternoon, went in "Mountclair", to Hall's, with 3 of our Province boys, which were left behind- Men, down to Woërmann's, & saw my 2 casks #26, and #28. Got the 2 women some things they wanted. Returned, after dinner, to Kângwe. Have not up late talking, for two nights.
